

President's Seminars

- TT10 George Brock 'Journalism: What exactly is it?'
- MT10 Jonathan Garner 'Implications of an Asia-led Global Economy'
- HT11 Sir Hector Sants 'Lessons From the Crisis and the Changing Regulatory Landscape'
- TT11 Rupert Elderkin 'Srebrenica - Prosecuting Europe's Last Genocide'
- MT11 Xenia Dormandy 'America's Place in the World: Today and Tomorrow'
- MT13 Andrew Purkis 'UK Charities, Political Campaigning and Democracy: Some Meditations from the Front Line'
- HT14 Edward Fraenkel 'Memories of Eduard Fraenkel and Corpus, 1935-70'
- TT14 Edward Fitzgerald 'Extradition, Terrorism and Human Rights'
- MT14 Hassan Al-Damluji 'Aid, Wars and Extremes of Development'
- HT15 Eleanor Sharpston 'Squaring the Circle? Fighting Terrorism whilst Respecting Fundamental Rights'
- MT15 Peter Nichols 'Casting the Audience'
- HT16 Malcolm Rifkind 'Britain and Europe. Is the future what it used to be?'
- TT16 Steve Cowley 'The Quest for Fusion Energy'
- MT16 Sir Roger Penrose 'Fashion, Faith, and Fantasy in the New Physics of the Universe'
- TT17 Sarah Hunter, Head of Policy at Google X
- HT18 Randy Boissonault 'LGBTQ2 Issues'
- MT19 Hassan Al-Damluji 'What Citizens of the World Can learn from Nationalism'
- HT21 Virtual President's Seminar on Covid- presentations by Foundation Fellow Jonathan Wolf (Physics, 1993), CEO of ZOE, on the ZOE Covid-19 Symptom Study app; Dr Antoni Wrobel (Biochemistry, 2007) on his work at the Francis Crick Institute on understanding the virus spike protein; and Professor Pawel Swietach on how he and his team have executed a small-scale study on a rapid time scale to refute the claim that the infection impairs red cell oxygen transport.
- TT22 John Simpson 'The politics and cruel realities of the conflict in Ukraine'
- HT23 Xenia Wickett 'State of the World: Dynamic trends and hotspots'
- TT23 Zereena Arshad 'The Role and Effectiveness of Select Committees'
- MT23 Peter Kellner 'Figuring Out the Next Election'
- MT23 'Publishing 'in conversation', moderated by the President, in which three alumni and one current College lecturer discussed the world of books, writing and publishing. Panellists were Editorial Director Trade & Academic at Yale University Press Julian Loose (English, 1985), publishing consultant specialising in developmental editing Flora Rees (English, 1994), ITV news journalist and author of The Wolf Den trilogy Elodie Harper (English, 1998) and author of the Orphans of the Tide trilogy Struan Murray (Corpus Lecturer in Biochemistry).
- TT24 Joseph Mindell 'How basic science and clinical medicine intertwine'